

1:1 Teaching assistant role

The Bellbird Primary School are looking to appoint a 1:1 Teaching Assistant, working alongside and under the direction of the class teacher to support a named individual to reach their potential and develop both personally and academically. This post is with a pupil currently in Year 6.

This role is 25 hours a week:

The successful applicant will be enthusiastic, resilient, calm, patient and demonstrate a positive outlook. They should also have a good knowledge and understanding of the curriculum with a basic grounding of English and Maths skills. Experience is desirable but a thirst to learn and develop the skills to support our wonderful children is essential. Given the 1:1 nature of this role, an understanding or experience of how to support individuals with additional needs is desirable.

The closing date for applications is: Friday 9th September

Interviews will be arranged the week beginning: 10th September

The Bellbird Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments are conditional and subject to references and an enhanced DBS check.
