

1:1 Teaching assistant role

The Bellbird Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

The Bellbird Primary School are looking to appoint a 1:1 Teaching Assistant, working alongside and under the direction of the class teacher to support a named individual to reach their potential and develop both personally and academically. This post is with a pupil currently in Reception and as such would move to Year 1 with them in the next academic year. The start date for employment is as soon as possible.

This role is 16.25 hours a week: 12.00 – 3.15 daily

The successful applicant will be enthusiastic, resilient, calm, patient and demonstrate a positive outlook. Experience is desirable but a thirst to learn and develop the skills to support our wonderful children is essential. Given the needs of the pupil, there are some intimate care needs as part of this role. An understanding or experience of how to support individuals with additional needs is desirable but not essential, we have a supportive team who will share routines and best practise with the successful candidate.

To get a feel for our school visit our website at www.thebellbird.cambs.sch.uk or you can email the office on office@thebellbird.cambs.sch.uk to ask for an application form.

Visits are encouraged. Please contact the school office on (01223) 833216 or email us at office@thebellbird.cambs.sch.uk to arrange a visit or to ask any further questions about the post.

The closing date for applications is: Friday 24th March at midday

Interviews will be: Thursday 30th March times tbc

The Bellbird Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments are conditional and subject to references and an enhanced DBS check.
