The Bellbird Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

We are looking for an experienced teacher to join our KS2 team in the Autumn term. This is a 60% post. You would be joining a committed and supportive team who work together positively to meet pupil needs. The successful candidate will join the team in sustaining and building on provision for our key stage two children, working collaboratively with our team. Candidates must have a good knowledge and understanding of the Primary curriculum as well as experience of teaching in key stage two in one or more year groups.

Our main aim is to recruit the best candidate for our school who will work positively with our team to provide our pupils with top quality learning experiences. We are a friendly and dedicated team who are always aiming to ensure all pupils can 'soar to success'.

We believe that learning is for all of our school community, we work together to constantly review our provision to meet pupil needs. We are looking for someone who is not afraid of development and who is committed to their own lifelong learning as well as the pupils.

We are looking for a teacher who is:

- Thoughtful about teaching and learning and is a reflective and creative practitioner
- Able to support children to develop their independence
- Committed to working as part of a team to provide a caring and positive learning environment for all our pupils
- Able to adapt their teaching and learning to reflect a range of pupils' different abilities and specific needs, using school and external services guidance as appropriate
- Committed to supporting pupils to learn life skills reflected through our school aims
- Able to model high expectations and a reflective attitude to becoming even better
- Able to motivate and inspire our children through positive professional relationships
- Able to implement effective positive behaviour management skills (we are a STEPS school and have a

- Committed to taking an active part in the wider aspects of school life

In return, we can offer:

- A happy, caring school with a strong community ethos
- Motivated pupils, who enjoy learning and behave well
- A supportive staff, governing body and parents, who work together to meet the needs of all our pupils
- A strong commitment to professional development and career progression within the team
- A fantastic community to work in with good learning resources both within the school and also within walking distance in the village of Sawston itself

The Bellbird Primary School is a Local Authority maintained school with two-form entry. We have a large school site with numerous outdoor learning spaces.
